Belvidere, Ill., Dec. 3, 1891.
NORMAN LIGHTY, Des Moines, Iowa.
DEAR SIR:—Having suffered a great deal from headache for years and being unable to get relief until it would wear away of itself. I saw Krause's Headache Capsules advertised, I tried them and now am never without them, finding it the only remedy that will give me relief. When I now find a headache coming on me I take a capsule and find the relief instantaneous.
Respectfully yours,
G. H. WRIGHT,
Boston, Mass.
For sale by Summers & Dauchy, druggists.

The latest: "Say, roll me a cigarette."

Black Wallace was in Carson yesterday.

Eva Williams returned from the bay yesterday.

Dentist Phelps, of Reno, was in Carson yesterday.

Henry Rosenbrock is at Walley's Springs, for his health.

The fire steamer Swift is in the railroad shops being overhauled.

Mrs. Davis, of Mound House, passed through to Reno last night.

Miss Idelle Atherton has been appointed teacher at the Clear Creek school.

It is said that the Chinese are selling cigarette papers against the law, in Chinatown.

Tommy Tennant sent 11 trout to his sire yesterday. They were packed in a sardine can.

An early Fall is being predicted, but it is more than likely that it will be just the opposite.

The Davie ferry running between Oakland and San Francisco appears to have come to stay.

Miss Charlotte Greenhaul of Virginia who has been visiting friends in this city has returned home.

Miss Emily Longabaugh has been appointed to teach at Brunswick, and Miss Mamie Hickey at Empire.

Under the management of Charley Stoddard, Steamboat springs is becoming quite an attractive place.

The Sacramento Board of Trustees has decided to license gambling, charging $100 per quarter for each game.

If you have any news items don't keep them to yourself, but bring them here, where they will be given publicity.

A Chinaman shot a tramp the other day near Sacramento, who was throwing rocks at him. Served the tramp right.

The world's stallion trotting record was lowered at Fort Wayne, Ind., Saturday, by Roy Wilkes who made the mile in 2:8½.

Eli Barkley has his hair cut so short that he thinks of having his head painted green as a sign for the watermelons he has just received.

A newly painted mail car and express car were put on the express train last night. The old ones will be put in the railroad shops for overhauling.

While monkeying with one of our job presses yesterday a small boy nearly lost a finger. He has given up the idea of starting another paper in Carson.

Times must be dull in Carson when a Chinaman in town passes the remark that if some one will give him $1,000, he will go to Washington and kill Cleveland.

Cushing & Epstine are putting up a steel ceiling in the Masonic Hall. This is the second ceiling of the kind in the state. The first one is in the Nevada bank building at Reno.

Billy Eckhoff and family and Jake Baumann and family arrived from Virginia yesterday morning by private conveyance. Mr. Eckhoff and family leave for the Lake today.

It was rumored on the streets yesterday that between the 1st and 5th of next month that the mines on the Comstock with the exception of the Savage and Con. Va. will be closed down.

F. Daemyter, manager of Abo Cohn's tailoring parlors, has returned from San Francisco with a well selected stock of imported cloths. He is prepared to turn out stylish fitting Winter suits.

The Agency of the Nevada Bank at Virginia City has closed its doors. People who are in a position to know say that it will be small loss to Virginia, as it was never an accommodating institution.

A negro woman in New Orleans makes a good living by changing the complexion of her fellow Africans from black to white. She uses a preparation which removes the skin, and the new skin that replaces it is nearly white.

Jim Callahan was in Carson yesterday. Jim is quite a warbler, and when in San Francisco recently a prominent vocalist told him he possessed a wonderful tenor voice, with a greater range than any he had ever encountered.

The law of 1893 make it obligatory on all administrators and others managing estates to make quarterly reports and Judge Rising has made an order requiring a compliance with the law under penalty of removal.

The Salt Lake Tribune says that a number of silver enthusiasts are preparing to purchase a silver brick for presentation to Congressman Bland. It will be useful as a paper weight, and on it will be inscribed: "Dick, you are silver brick."

The crowd of hoodlums known as the C. & C. gang, are giving residents of that section of the comstock a good deal of trouble. The Chronicle says they have terrorized people in the neighborhood. They seem also to have terrorized the officers.

Vorhees wants his bill passed repealing the Sherman Act, and says he has faith that the President will sign a free coinage bill afterwards. What's the matter with embodying a free coinage clause in the repeal bill? Oh, we're onto you, Vorhees, and don't you forget it.

There are no new cases of diphtheria in town. It was brought here from California and only two or three children who came in direct contact with the patient contracted the disease. Every possible precaution has been taken to prevent the spread of the disease and it is hoped and believed that it has been stamped out.

COAST NEWS.

Louis Stinson has been placed in the Whitman, Wash., jail, on the charge of poisoning horses.

Stobkton's anti-Chinese agitation fell flat. There are few of the Mongolians employed in that city.

Successful climbers of Mount St. Helens have returned to Tacoma, Wash., and declare the mountain is an active volcano.

The Crocker-Huffman Land and Water Company lost 600 acres of standing grain by fire Monday, near Amsterdam, Merced county.

Gus Anderson jumped from the wire-cable across Snoqualmie Falls, Wash., Sunday, with a parachute. He fell on his back and struck a rock, his injuries resulting in death shortly afterward.

John Smith, a suitor for the hand of William Douglas' daughter at Cholame, San Luis Obispo county, was shot by the irate father, who opposed his visits. The shooting was done through the window, near which Smith was sitting.

It was rumored that an attack on Chinatown at Bakerfield had been planned Saturday, but as soon as the citizens became aware of the fact they held a meeting and agreed to establish an employment bureau to assist the unemployed, and armed guards were placed to patrol the streets.

The Chinese in Selma who refused to close their restaurants when ordered to do so by the people have had them closed, and two of the proprietors given tickets and sent to Fresno. The laundrymen have been given to the 1st of September to leave. The restaurateurs have been given five days.

Lieutenant C. A. Nelson of Company A, Oregon National Guard, who was wounded in the sham battle at the encampment near Oregon City, Saturday, died Sunday morning. A wad from one of the guns of the battery he was trying to capture struck him in the lumbar region, penetrating the flesh half an inch near the spinal column. The shock and intense excitement produced fatal results.

Narrow Escape.

Ethel, younger daughter of the APPEAL editor, had a very narrow escape from drowning Sunday at McKinney's, Lake Tahoe. She was standing on the wharf with her back to the water, and some child pushed her off. A lad from Reno, Herbert Jones, saw her and pulled her out by the clothes as she was sinking the second time. She did not scream, so none of the guests knew of it, and the boy by his presence of mind saved her life without doubt. The boy gallantly put his coat about her and brought her over to the camp. She was all right in a little while, and said: "I dot a baf, anyway."

A Cowardly Murder.

Camden, Ark., August 22.—At Bearden R. T. Justice, a sawmill man, was shot from ambush Saturday night and died at 11 o'clock yesterday. A load of buckshot was poured through his window.

There had been bad blood between him and his employees for some time. His dying statement incriminates prominent parties in Bearden. The tracks leading from the scene indicate that a common laborer did not commit the crime, as they show marks of expensive boots. The Sheriff is now on the scene with bloodhounds.

A terrible state of affairs exists at this place. It was only a short time ago that a St. Louis attorney was held up, and just before that Jessie Norman was knocked down and robbed, a crime that was followed by the lynching of three negroes.

Bottle Bee.

A bottle-filling bee is going on at McGlashan's office. The last log of the Donner cabins is being cut up and placed in vials and all the native son and daughters, and everybody else, is helping to fill bottles. A cordial invitation is extended to all the citizens of the town to help in the work. The bottles are to be sold to erect a monument for the Donner Party, so every person ought to take an interest in the work. It is no slight task to fill 5000 bottles, so everyone is welcome who will work.

Truckee Republican.
The bottle-filling bee is not very popular in this section; it is the bottle-emptying bee, which is in vogue here mostly.

The District Fair.

A committee consisting of A. Livingston, Geo. C. Bryson, Bob Grinnon, Gib. Briggs, and Wm. Hy. Doane were out canvassing the city yesterday to secure aid for the holding of the annual District Fair. They report having met with better success than anticipated.

At a meeting of the County Commissioners last evening it was decided to appropriate $600 towards holding a Fair, and with what the Committee will collect, the Fair looks like a certainty. Hurrah!

A Terrible Fall.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., August 22.—Condy McGroraty, a mine boy 13 years old, fell 280 feet down a mine shaft on Saturday night. His dog aroused the neighbors. He was found at the bottom of the shaft, badly bruised, but alive. He may live.

Burial of Mrs. Moody.

Mrs. Sarah Moody was buried from the Methodist Church yesterday afternoon, Rev. Henry Pierce officiating. The pall bearers were Messrs. Wolmering, Latta, Alley, Wagner, Anderson and Brishbaugh. A long line of carriages followed the remains.

Literary Authority.

Doxey, the San Francisco, book seller, is the recognized book expert of this Coast. His selections of new books are to be found at Cagwin & Noteware's store. New consignment just received yesterday.

In mentioning Will Mather's rendition of the song "Calvary," sung at the Presbyterian Church Sunday evening the News pays the young gentleman a very doubtful compliment. It says:

"Not a sound was heard in the congregation until he had finished, when a ripple of genuine satisfaction seemed to pass over the entire house."

Fresh French candies received daily from San Francisco, by L. Baer.
